A September Day

By Francis Duggan

A thing of such great beauty to behold
The wattles resplendent in their blooms of gold
The first week of September and Spring is in the air
And in the green park daisies bloom everywhere
On a day like this 'tis good to be alive
To start your car and go off on a drive
So great to live to see another Spring
To hear the nesting wild birds chirp and sing,
Where I a poet would write a simple lay?
For to celebrate this beautiful Spring Day
To celebrate the beauty, I can see
Where the Goddess of Spring has spread her greenery
And the wattles laden in their golden flowers
Look resplendent in these mild September hours.

Happy Farter's Day to the best in the game.

JOKES!

Little Johnny talked too much at the dinner table and didn't eat.

His father then decided that a new rule would prevail: "No more talk at the table! While having our meals no one talks!" Soon after:

"Dad..."

"Be quiet and eat your dinner".

"But dad..."

"No talking, please..."

When dinner was over Dad asked Johnny what he wanted to tell him.

"I was going to tell you that there was a green caterpillar in your salad, but now it's gone!"

"What's your father's occupation?" asked the teacher on the first day of school.

"He's a magician, Ma'am," said the new boy.

"That's very interesting. What's his favourite trick?"

"He saws people in half".

"Gosh! Anyway, next question. Do you have any brothers or sisters?"

"Yes, one half brother and two half-sisters"
